New Anwar Ka Ajab Kissa Full Movie DownloadThe debate over the nomination of Brett Kavanaugh to the Supreme Court has exposed a deep divide in our country between those who believe that a woman’s right to choose should be restricted and those who believe she has the right to determine when and if she will bear a child. But while many focus only on this particular issue, there is an even more fundamental question at play: Is a woman’s body her own, or should she be the property of society? As a woman, I am acutely aware that I cannot literally own my own body. But what exactly does “own” mean? Is it a physical thing, or is it more of a moral principle? On what grounds can we classify women’s bodies as belonging to those who own them? At the time of the Founding Fathers, women were considered property of their husbands, whose power over them was absolute and whose right to beat or even kill them was not considered a crime. Women’s bodies were considered property and their only protection from such treatment was the knowledge that their edd6d56e20
